World-class education, country values

Excellence in pastoral care

FOR families considering boarding, Bunbury Cathedral Grammar School provides a world-class education enriched with country values.

Family is at the heart of the boarding school, with students welcomed into its community by caring and supportive staff in a nurturing environment.

As a co-educational school, families enjoy the ease of being able to send both sons and daughters to the same school.

Boarding is a stimulating environment that encourages strong friendships and builds confidence. Along with a quality academic and supervised study programme, your child will enjoy a host of sporting, performance and co-curricular opportunities.

With a private bus network travelling to and from Esperance for holidays, getting to and from Bunbury Cathedral Grammar School has never been easier.

KIDS' COOKING IS COOL

THE Bubble Muffin Kids Cooking Club is best described as a mix between Jamie Oliver and The Wiggles. It is a high-energy, interactive live stage performance that inspires kids to eat fresh fruit and vegetables. The Cooking Club is led by professional, passionate performers, who explore themes involving healthy foods and ingredients aimed at a younger audience.

PIPE BAND SET TO ENTERTAIN

THE Eastern Goldfields Highland Pipe Band is ready to entertain the crowd at this year's show. It is a busy 2016 for the in-demand band with the year's events schedule including the Goldfields Spring Festival, the Kalgoorlie and Boulder cups and the Back to the Bush Veterans Reunion at Bruce Rock. Look for them at the show or, better still, follow your ears!

MOUTHWATERING MENU

TWO celebrity chefs you are sure to recognise will cook up a storm at this year's Esperance and Districts Agricultural Show. Perth-based Eva Lean and Debra Ch'ng became household names when they were semi-finalists on Channel Seven's My Kitchen Rules Australia 2015. The girls are particularly inspired by food from their Indian/Singaporean/Chinese/Malaysian heritage. See them at the show.
